Louise Law joined EFCA in 1991. Born into a Hong Kong family deeply rooted in traditional Chinese philosophy and religion, she made the courageous decision to become a Christian at the age of 14, despite strong objections from her family. Her commitment to her faith led her to earn a Diploma from Moore College, preparing her for missionary work. Guided by God, Louise has faithfully served in teaching roles for over 20 years, despite having little formal training in education. She has taught playgroups for infants, SRE in public primary and secondary schools, Sunday School for children, and English classes and Equipping Ministry courses for adults. Although she has more extensive training in music, God redirected her path from choir and worship singspiration to serving as a worship chairperson. A naturally reserved person, she now coordinates evangelism efforts in the Outreach Ministry, including leading a Line Dance class and other interest groups. Louise's professional background includes a career in banking, where she managed projects and teams. However, she found greater fulfilment as a full-time homemaker. After many years, God called her to serve on the Deacons Board, where she has held roles such as Vice Chairman, Secretary, and Financial Secretary. Louise is married to Michael Law, and they have three children: Ellen, who attends her husband's church, Terence, who is a member of Lindfield St Albans, and Lachlan, who attends East Lindfield Anglican Church.
